Implementation of Report No. 40 of the Review Body on Higher Remuneration in the Public Sector (O'Brien Report)

I am directed by the Minister for Education and Science to refer to the implementation of Report No. 40 of the Review Body on Higher Remuneration in the Public Sector (O'Brien Report).

Sanction is hereby conveyed for the application of the second half of the interim increase of 7.5%, amounting to 3.75%, to the salaries of Directors of Institutes of Technology and Dublin Institute of Technology, and the President of Dublin Institute of Technology.

The application of the increase of 3.75% to the basic pay of the above grades is due with effect from 1st January 2006. The increase due is being added to the basic pay as at 31st December 2005. The salary rate effective from 1st January 2006 is calculated by increasing the salary applicable on 30th June 2005 by 7.5% (the full increase recommended in Report No. 40) and then applying the 1.5% increase paid on 1st December 2005 due under Sustaining Progress.

Please note that the application of this increase is subject to certain conditions being met. These conditions were outlined in the sanction which issued for the application of the first phase of the Review Body increase.

The relevant salary scales are attached herewith.
