

Circular 0086/2007

To: The Management Authorities of Community and Comprehensive Schools

Teacher Recruitment Policies 2007/2008 in Community and Comprehensive Schools

School authorities shall ensure that their teacher recruitment policies are revised to take account of the following.

1. In accordance with section 7 A (b) of the Articles of Management of Community and Comprehensive schools, the Minister directed by Circular 0102/2006 that individual schools' policy on teacher recruitment should be reviewed by reference to the following:

A candidate proposed for appointment to the teaching staff of a Community or Comprehensive school, shall be registered in accordance with section 31 of the Teaching Council Act, 2001.

2. Each candidate for appointment to a teaching post shall have qualifications, including teacher education, suited to the purpose of the post for which s/he is proposed.

A list of approved qualifications for teaching is published by the Teaching Council on its website. This list shows the subject(s) for which each qualification has been approved. Further guidance, where required on what subject(s) a teacher is qualified to teach, may be obtained by contacting the Teaching Council.

3. Any offer of employment must be conditional
 - a. on the production of a Registration Certificate or a certified statement of registration by 31 October 2007 and
 - b. on the teacher being compliant with all other requirements in relation to probation etc.

It is expected that The Teaching Council will be in a position to issue Registration Certificates to registered teachers late in the Autumn term. In the meantime, candidates for appointment who have been registered with the Teaching Council can obtain a certified statement of registration from the Council's office at The Teaching Council, Block A, Maynooth Business Campus, Maynooth, Co. Kildare. 01 6517900. email: info@teachingcouncil.ie

Newly-qualified teachers (2007 graduates) will not be registered before the start of the 2007-2008 school year by which time their qualification details will have been transferred from their colleges.

4. The vetting of teaching staff shall be in accordance the terms of Circular 0094/2006 and the Teaching Council cannot issue a certified statement of registration until the vetting process is complete.
