Circular 3/1958:- Travelling Expenses, Rail Travel

A Dhuine Uasail,

1. I am directed by the Minister for Finance to say that, having considered representations made by certain Departments regarding the classes of railway accommodation (otherwise than on narrow-gauge railways) to be allowed to civil servants travelling on official business when two classes of accommodation only are provided, he has decided that, subject otherwise to existing regulations, the higher class of accommodation will be allowable to officers eligible for class A subsistence and the lower class of accommodation to all other officers.

2. Circular 14/27 is to be regarded as amended accordingly.

Mise, le meas,
L.M. Fitzgerald
