3. Assistant Principal Role

The Assistant Principal is a senior managerial grade in the Civil Service and is a critical post in terms of ensuring quality service delivery to the public. The Civil Service operates in a range of locations across the State and while the greater number of vacancies to be filled from this competition are likely to occur in Dublin, some positions may be offered in other locations.

The role of Assistant Principal is a hugely diverse one, the context of which can vary from Department to Department and from post to post. Assistant Principals are key participants in the senior management process of Departments/Offices with a critical management role in implementing government policy in the economic, financial, international, environmental and/or social arenas.

They are key drivers of the Civil Service Renewal Plan which outlines a vision for the Civil Service including practical changes that will create a more unified, professional, responsive, open and accountable Civil Service, providing a world-class service to the State and to the people of Ireland. They will play a central role in driving organisational change and are ideally placed to make a significant contribution to shaping the future of Ireland. They report to a Principal Officer but will also advise and interact with senior management in respect of your areas of responsibility. Some posts may require you to represent Ireland at European and international level. Assistant Principals may be required to act as representatives for their Departments/Offices and may also represent the country at a European and international level.

How to Apply

Once you have submitted your application form you should return to your publicjobs account and confirm that it has been successfully submitted via 'My Applications'. Only fully completed and submitted applications will be accepted into the campaign. The admission of a person to the competition, or invitation to undertake any element of the selection process is not to be taken as implying that the PAS or other body is satisfied that such a person fulfils the requirements.

Only one application per person is permitted. Remember, you must include your PPS number when applying.

Closing Date

The closing date for receipt of completed applications is midnight on Thursday 18th June, 2015.

8. Selection Process

The selection process for this competition will comprise a number of elements. These may include one or more of the following:

- Completion of an online Assessment Questionnaire;
- Online and/or paper-based assessment test(s);
- Short listing;
- Language tests (oral and/or written), e.g. in the case of applicants for Functional Bilingual positions in the Irish language;
- Interview(s);

- Presentation/Analysis exercise;
- Work sample test or any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.
- Additional interview for First Secretary positions if the candidate has indicated an interest in these positions and if they are placed on the Assistant Principal panel.

Applicants must successfully compete and be placed highest, in order to be considered for advancement to the next stage of the selection process. The number to be called forward will be determined from time to time by the PAS.

Candidates who indicate on their application form that they are interested in being considered for appointment as First Secretary in the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade and who are successful in being placed on the Assistant Principal Officer (Standard) panel, will subsequently be considered by a separate board. The board will consider their suitability for the diplomatic service having regard to the particular work requirements and terms and conditions of employment, including the onerous and continuing liability for service abroad, which apply in the diplomatic service. Should a vacancy arise, consideration for appointment will be made from those candidates who have been confirmed suitable for the post, in accordance with their order of merit on the Assistant Principal Officer (Standard) panel.

A decision by the board that an individual candidate is not suitable for assignment to the diplomatic service, or any agreement between the board and a candidate that the candidate will not proceed with his/her application in the light of the discussions with the board, will not interfere in any way with the candidate's place on the Assistant Principal Officer (Standard) panel.

More detailed information will be made available to the relevant candidates if they are invited to progress through the selection process.

Successful candidates will be placed on a panel(s) from which future vacancies may be filled.

Candidates should note that test scores attained at any stage in this campaign may carry forward, should they apply for future campaigns conducted by the Public Appointments Service within a 12 month period. This will be determined by PAS on a case by case basis.

Candidates with Special Needs

Candidates who indicate on their application that they have special needs will be required (if they have not already done so) to submit an original psychologists/medical report to Troy Murphy, Public Appointments Service, Chapter House, 26-30 Abbey Street Upper, Dublin 1 by Monday, 22nd June, 2015. A determination will be made by PAS on appropriate accommodations, if any, to be made for individual candidates during the selection process.

Positions requiring specialist Irish language skills

The Civil Service is fully committed to fulfilling obligations under the Official Languages Act. It is intended that vacancies arising which require staff to provide a full range of services through the Irish language (Functional Bilinguals), may be filled from this competition.

Candidates who indicate their interest on the application form and who are successful at the final selection stages will be required to undergo and assessment of their Irish language skills.

Candidates should make themselves available on the date(s) specified by the Public Appointments Service and ensure that the contact details specified on the application form are correct. The Public Appointments Service will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates.

9. Candidates should note that (i) eligibility for the competition, (ii) health and the level of sick leave, (iii) performance of work in the present grade, (iv) verification that the candidate has received an Evaluation of at least “Fully Achieved Expectations” at the previous year’s PMDS End-of-Year Review, and (v) general conduct are not verified by the PAS until a candidate comes under consideration for appointment. Admission to the competition, or any of the selection stages of the competition, does not imply acceptance by the Public Appointments Service. In particular, candidates should note that the Personnel Officer will not have verified the above including health and the level of sick leave of those called to competitive interview – accordingly, admission to the competition, or any of the selection stages of the competition does not imply that candidates meets the eligibility criteria including health and sick leave.

In considering a candidate's suitability for appointment in terms of health and sick leave, the Public Appointments Service will comply with Department of Public Expenditure and Reform Circular 6/2014. Candidates having doubts on any aspect of their eligibility are advised to clarify their position with their Personnel Section before proceeding with their application.

Shortlisting

Normally the number of applications received exceeds the numbers required to fill existing and future vacancies. While you may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the positions are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the Public Appointments Service may decide that a number only will be called to interview. In this respect, the Public Appointments Service provide for the employment of a short listing process to select a group for interview who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable, or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates who are, prima facie, better qualified and/or have more relevant experience.

During any short listing exercise that may be employed, the Public Appointments Service are guided by an assessment board who examine the application forms and assess them against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. It is therefore in your own interests to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience on the application form.

STAGE 1

On-line Assessment Tests

As indicated, the selection process may comprise a number of stages. Stage 1 will comprise on-line assessment tests. To facilitate candidates’ availability and circumstances these initial online assessments will be unsupervised and may be taken in a venue of their choice, wherever they have access to a computer and a reliable internet connection.

On-line Test Taking Environment

Please be aware that taking these assessments within a secure IT network e.g. a network such as your work or college which may have firewalls or other security technology in place may cause you technical difficulties. You should consider taking your assessments in your home or other environment where access to the internet is not restricted to the same level. The onus is on you to ensure that you have full internet access to complete the tests. You should ensure that you can complete the tests in a quiet environment where you can concentrate without being disturbed for the duration of the tests. It is advised to take the assessment tests on a PC or Laptop. Candidates should not attempt to take the test on smart phone, mobile or tablet devices.

Assessment Test Link

A link to the actual on-line assessment tests will be sent to candidates’ Messageboards in advance of the test-taking window. It is anticipated that candidates will receive a link to their

Stage 1 on-line assessment tests by Friday 3rd July, 2015. If you do not receive communication by 6th July, 2015 you should email aprecruitment2015@piublicjobs.ie

Candidates who have not completed the on-line tests before the deadline will be deemed to be no longer interested in this competition and their application will receive no further consideration.

Your attention is drawn to Appendix 3 'Important Information'. If invited to progress through the selection process, a candidate may be required to sit tests in a supervised environment. If their performance is outside the expected scoring range from their unsupervised test, it will call into question the validity of their unsupervised test scores and they may be excluded from the selection process.

Next Steps

Candidates will be ranked on the outcome of their on-line assessment tests and may be called to Stage 2 in accordance with their ranking. Should you come under consideration to proceed to subsequent stages of the selection process, information will be forwarded to you at the appropriate time.
