Re: Increased Flexi Credit for absences from work due marital separation or breakdown

I am directed by the Minister for Finance to refer to the attached letter to Personnel Officers of 14th February 1991 from this Department regarding flexi credit for absences from work due to marital separation or breakdown.

I am to inform you that the limits referred to in Paragraph 3 at (a) and (b) have been increased. The new limits are (a) four FWH credits, or (b) a total of 14 hours credit, whichever is more favourable for the officer concerned.

Enquiries regarding this letter should be directed to General Condition Section, at the Department of Finance, 73-79 Lr. Mount St., Dublin 2. (Tel: 604 5439)

Yours sincerely,

Terry Jennings
