1. The Programme 2019/2020

St Angela's College, Sligo, (a College of the National University of Ireland, Galway (NUIG)), is offering a Post-Graduate Certificate/Diploma in Special Educational Needs (Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Professional Development Programme in collaboration with the National Council for Special Education (NCSE) for teachers of students with ASD. In accordance with programmes being offered by the college, this programme will be accredited by NUIG, and will lead to an award of a Post-Graduate Certificate/Diploma in Special Educational Needs (Autism Spectrum Disorder).

2. Up to 25 places will be available on the programme for the year 2019/2020.

3. Aim and Content

The aim of the programme will be to develop teachers' knowledge, understanding and skills in working with students with autism spectrum disorder and, thereby, to contribute to the school's overall capacity in this area.

Qualifications will be awarded by NUIG to participants who successfully complete the programme. Participants will be assessed on the basis of full attendance at the programme, successful completion of selected tasks and written assignments, in addition to their work in schools. Consideration will be given to applications for recognition for prior learning (RPL) under the College's RPL policies and procedures. Relevant NCSE courses in the learning and teaching of students with ASD will be considered in this context. Further details are available to applicants from St. Angela's College, Sligo on their website at www.stangelas.nuigalway.ie and the National Council for Special Education on their website at www.ncse.ie.
