Circular 17/1976:- Irish requirements in the Civil Service

A Dhuine Uasail

I am directed by the Minister for the Public Service to refer to Circular 43/75, regarding Irish requirements in the civil service, and to say that, pending the issue of a comprehensive Circular, the provisions of paragraph 5 will remain in force in relation to confined interview competitions and departmental promotions for grades which were subject to the Irish requirements which previously applied.
