Circular 6/1988:- Amendment to paid study leave arrangements

A Dhuine Uasail

I am directed by the Minister for Finance to say that he has accepted an agreed recommendation made by the General Council under the scheme of conciliation and arbitration for the civil service (Report 1107) on an amendment to the provisions on paid study leave for third-level examinations set out in Circular 38/81.

2. Officers may be allowed carry forward up to three days paid study leave from the second last year to the last year of a course.
3. In accordance with the provisions on the grant of paid study leave generally this arrangement is subject to the exigencies of the public service and is at the discretion of the Head of the Department.
4. Please bring this circular to the attention of all officers in your Department.
