3/12/2010 LP: - Bank-time Provision

Dear Personnel Officer,

At a meeting today in the Department of Finance, the civil service unions were informed that the “bank time” provision which applies to civil service staff recruited before 1 October 2003 will be eliminated with effect from 1 January 2011.

Accordingly, with effect from 1 January 2011, no further provision of credited time should be awarded in respect of “bank time” for any person, whether through Flexible Working Hours or otherwise.

Yours sincerely,

Mary McKeon,
Principal,
Personnel and Remuneration Division.
